Thank you for your Bee Removal Order: All Orders are subject to our written agreement by our completion, signature and delivery of the terms agreed to mutually in the following Bee Removal Contract. Delivery of all documents may be made by U.S. First Class Mail, or acknowledged receipt of copies by email.

Bee Removal Contract

This agreement is made on _____ between:

(Homeowners Name) hereinafter called the Homeowner

(Beekeeper's name) hereinafter called the beekeeper.

Home Owner Responsibility

I _____ am stating that I am the owner of the property at

_____, and that I authorize Peaked Hill Apiary, L.L.C., to remove honey bees from my property and to disassemble parts of walls, floors, exterior or any part of my home in his effort to remove the bees from my home or property. I also understand that Peaked Hill Apiary, L.L.C. will make every effort to minimize damage to my home while removing bees and their comb but will not perform or be responsible for any repairs of the disassembly or damage that occurs during their removal efforts.

I understand that all repairs are my responsibility as the homeowner and that repair to the property should be performed with the understanding that the bees could return to the same location in the future and that all measures to prevent this should be communicated to the contractor used to repair the disassembly or damage done to the structure of the home.

I am stating that the bees have not been sprayed with any type of pesticides of any kind, unless noted below and signed by both parties.

I agree to pay the sum of $ _____ for the agreed service of this contract. I understand that this amount could change due to extenuating circumstances during the course of stated bee removal. I also understand that I will be notified if this amount should change due to these circumstances prior to the extra work being performed.

I understand that Peaked Hill Apiary, L.L.C. will remove all the honeybees from the above stated property, I also understand that after the removal bees that were still in the field collecting nectar and pollen may return to the hives location. But realize that most bees that return to find the colony removed will disperse within 24-48 hrs.

I have read the article "How We Do It" on Peaked Hill Apiary's web site at www.PeakedHillApiary.com and I am aware of how the removal will take place.

By signing below, I the home owner, have been informed of the services to be done to remove any and all bees residing on or in my property prior to signing this contract. I also understand that no other agreements have been made since the signing of this document, either verbally or any other way unless noted below and initialed by me.

Amendment to original agreement:

Beekeeper

Beekeeper Responsibility:

I will perform all removal work to the best of my ability and do my very best to keep the damage to your home to a minimum.

I will remove as many bees and as much comb as possible. I will also advise you (the owner) as to the best way to keep the bees from returning to the same area in the future. I will do everything within my power to remove all the honeybees from the owner's property, I do not guarantee that all the bees will be moved due to bees still being in the field collecting nectar and pollen. Most bees that return to find the colony removed will disperse within 24-48 hrs.
